KELLOGG BILL CAUSES SENATE SPLIT

MEASURE OFFERED AS SUBSTITUTE FOR THE NORRIS BILL

Senator Norris Makes a Bitter Attack in the Senate on the Measure—Charges Political Machine Tactics Used Against Bill—Ridicules Hoover and Meyer as Wet Nurses

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 27.—A bi-partisan movement in the senate today got behind the administration plan for agriculture credits as a substitute for the Norris bill, caused a split in the unofficial agriculture "bloc" of senators, and roused to vigorous protest Senator Norris, Republican, Nebraska, in charge of the measure bearing his name.

Charges of "political machine" tactics against his bill were made by Senator Norris, whose verbal blast included the adminstration broadly, the white house, Vice President Coolidge, the cabinet and other government officials and individual senators.

The attack of Senator Norris, which followed an agreement today between Republicans and Democrats to support the administration plan to have the war finance corporation placed in charge of agriculture credits was directed at the substitute bill of Senator Kellogg, Republican, Minnesota. This measure was drafted by Secretary Hoover and Director Meyer of the war finance corporation and was introduced yesterday just prior to the reading of a message from President Harding suggesting such a measure.

Characterizing the Kellogg bill as an "illegitimate child," Secretary Hoover and Director Myer as its "foster father", Senator Norris said the effort to defeat the Norris bill was the topic of many white house conferences.

It was "no secret", he said, that the administration was opposed to the Norris bill.

Suggestions of collusion between Vice-President Coolidge and Senator Curtis of Kansas, Republican whip in connection with Senators Kellogg's introduction of the substitute were made by Senator Norris. He said Senator Curtis presiding over the senate while Mr. Coolidge was attending the Tuesday cabinet meeting had given the floor to Senator Kellogg without the latter requesting recognition. The plans all were made Senator Norris said and soon after their consummation, he continued, Mr. Coolidge entered the senate.

"No details of operation are overlooked by the political machine," Senator Norris said, "if the vice-president has made other arrangements, push him aside."

Bill Drafted Mysteriously

The Kellogg bill, Senator Norris said, was drafted under "mysterious, secret" circumstances. There were many consultations on plans, he charged, "whether in the darkest cellars of the white house * * * or in the attic of the war finance corporation," was stated by Senator Norris.

The Kellogg bill he said was changed by elimination of original provisions authorizing the war finance corporation to take over railroad debt funding.

"But the president forgot to change his message and left the railroads in," continued Senator Norris, adding that the bill had to be changed "to bring some senators into line."

Senator Norris, referring to Senator Kellogg as a "horny fisted son of the soil," declared the Minnesota senator was selected to sponsor the Hoover-Meyer measure because he came from an agricultural state. Secretary Mellon opposed the Norris bill the Nebraska senator said, and "could not help it because he always has seen through the same glasses, seeing banks, bankers, trusts and millions."

Simmons Defends Bill

Support was given the Kellogg substitute however, by Senator Simmons, Democrat, North Carolina, who in an extended address, said it was drawn by persons in sympathy with objects of the legislation.

Other support came from within the agricultural "bloc" and the agriculture committee itself. The committee of which Senator Norris is chairman at its meeting today empowered a sub-committee to draft a new substitute bill. The sub-committee acted immediately and members said agreed to recommend a bill substantially similar to the Kellogg bill, turning over the agriculture credit matters to the war finance corporation.

The sub-committee's report is to be made tomorrow to the full agriculture committee, and with Democrats as well as Republican members behind it recommendation is expected.

FRENCH DEEM IT IMPOSSIBLE TO HOLD MEETING

Want Question of Upper Silesia Settled Before it is Held

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, July 27—The French government deems it impossible to decide on the holding of a meeting of the allied supreme council until the question of sending reinforcements into upper silesia has been decided.

M. De St. Aulaire, the French ambassador here, called on Lord Curzon, the British foreign minister this evening and conveyed this information in the name of his government.

The French notification is regarded here to indicate a serious divergence in the view points of the two countries. It is stated Lord Curzon merely took note of M. De St. Aulaire's communication and informed him he would refer the matter to the British cabinet.

When France agreed to a meeting of the supreme council in Paris on August 4, it was more or less understood French acquiescence depended either on the question of reinforcements being previously settled or upon its being made the first subject on the agenda of the council. The communication of M. De St. Aulaire would appear to show that the British government declines to yield on this point.

A London despatch of Tuesday said it had been officially announced there the allied supreme council would meet in Paris on August 4. The British experts who were designated to examine the Silesian question have left for Paris.

SMALL'S ATTITUDE NOT MADE KNOWN TO THE SHERIFF

Sheriff Mester Has No Response from Cook County

(By The Associated Press)

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 27.—Governor Small's attitude toward "unconditional surrender," to Sangamon county authorities waiting to arrest him on charges of embezzlement and conspiracy while state treasurer had not been made known to Sheriff Henry Mester late today.

Daylight faded into darkness with no response out of Chicago o Sheriff Mester's message refusing to place the governor under arrest in Cook county as proposed by Albert Fink, counsel for Governor Small.

Sensing a scheme to involve them in habeas corpus proceedings in Cook county courts, the sheriff and State's Attorney Mortimer turned down the overtures of Mr. Fink and sat back to wait for the governor's return to the capital. "There is no desire to embarass or humiliate the governor," Sheriff Mester said, "and we will not go to Cook county to serve the warrants. He can come here and arrange his bonds if he has decided to abandon his idea of protesting against arrest."

Has Three Bench Warrants

The sheriff had the three bench warrants in his hands as he spoke.

At the governor's office tonight it was said the state executive was "presumably still in Chicago."

Friends of Governor Small said they believed he had not given up his intention to "peacefully resist arrest," adding that he would probably exhaust all privileges he could obtain from the courts before making his surrender.

A writ of habeas corpus, it was pointed out, could not be obtained until the governor is arrested and nothing but time would develop in the case while he remained away from the capital.

For this reason county authorities looked for the governor's early return to Springfield, eventually to come to their terms on a peaceful procedure in making the arrest "at the governor's convenience."

Governor Small at midnight apparently had eluded all efforts to locate him. Friends in Chicago said he had left that city. At Kankakee, his home town, it was said the governor had not arrived there. None of the coming trains from Chicago bore the governor into Springfield, and friends here declared they had no information of his movements.

Chicago, July 27.—Mystery tonight marked the movements and plans of Governor Len Small, following a day of conferences with his attorneys and advisers here.

Eluding a score of newspapermen, the governor flitted from his hotel to the home of Albert Fink, his chief counsel and from there to a down town office for an afternoon conference. Newspapermen who watched Mr. Fink's office where the attorney said last night in a telegram to Sheriff Henry Mester of Sangamon county the governor would be today, prepared to surrender, failed to catch a glimpse of either Mr. Small or his lawyers.

Refusal of the Sangamon county authorities to come to Chicago and arrest the governor and their expressed willingness to await his return to Springfield, upset the plans laid last night for a hearing on habeas corpus proceedings before a Cook county court.

The possibility that the governor might surrender to Charles Fitzmorris, general superintendent of police or Sheriff Charles Peters of Cook county and permit the one or the other to wire Sheriff Mester that the governor is in custody here awaiting his arrival was still being discussed tonight but, so far as could be learned, no move in that direction has yet been taken, if it is contemplated.

Following today's conferences the governor announced that he was ready for an immediate trial.

"I want an immediate trial," said the governor. "I have no fear of the outcome if I have an honest hearing. I know I cannot get a fair trial in Sangamon coun-

CORONER'S JURY TURNS WOMAN KILLER LOOSE

Emilio Panico Exonerated by Coroner's Jury in Killing

(By The Associated Press)

Chicago, July 27.—Emilio Panico, who fatally stabed Mrs. Virginia Esposito last Sunday after a quarrel said to have been caused by the latter's attentions to Mrs. Panico's husband, was freed by a coroner's jury today. Following the inquest Mrs Panico was allowed to return to her home against the protests of the police.

Captain Patrick H. Kelliher, in whose district the murder occurred and who was instrumental in bringing about the surrender of Mrs. Panico, declared he would go before the grand jury in an effort to have the woman indicted despite the action of the coroner's jury.

While the verdict which freed Mrs. Esposito's assailant recognized the fact that Mrs. Panico stabed her victim, it declared that from the evidence presented Mrs. Panico was not criminally responsible for the death.

The police hold a signed confession from Mrs. Panico relating the manner in which she stabbed Mrs. Esposito and it in with this they say, they will go before the grand jury.

TRYING TO PLACE BLAME FOR DELAY OF SOLDIER RELIEF

Slow Work in Providing Hospitals for Disabled Soldiers

Altho bids were requested July 15, 1919, proposals were not opened until October 16 that year and the contract was not awarded until March 13, 1920, he said, adding that it is hoped the hospital will be opened to patients about August 1.

Mr. Wettmore expressed the opinion that the government could have obtained better results by using elsewhere the $3,400,000 which the hospital has cost.

Every possible effort has been made by his office in the employment of a special force to hasten work upon plans for hospitals and in pushing the same to construction, Mr. Wetmore stated.

FIVE YEAR POOL OF GRAIN CROPS IS COMBATTED

Grain Dealers' Association Begins Campaign of Education

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, July 27.—To combat an attempt now being made to pool and market grain crops which, in the proposed five year life of the pooling agreement would have an estimated value of twenty-five billion dollars the special legislature committee of the Grain Dealers' National association in session today voted to continue the campaign of education authorized at Cincinnati month ago.

All steps taken by Chairman R I. Mansfield and Vice-Chairman M. M. Day to further explain the association's attitude towards the proposed change in the system of grain marketing, were approved by the committee.

In the following statement, drawn up by the committee, a review of the situation as seen by the association is given:

Subjected to Attacks

"For several years particularly during the past year, the grain trade and the present competitive grain marketing system of the United States have been subjected to unwarranted criticism and attacks. The methods of transacting the grain business have been grossly misrepresented The grain dealers are charged with responsibility for price fluctuations that are and can only be the result of the operation of the law of supply and demand."

The statement continues by calling attention to the acts of those opposed to the present system in seeking legislation which would according to the association's interpretation destroy the existing competitive marketing arrangements without giving anything to take its place.

The good judgment of legislators and members of congress the statement says has so far prevented the enactment of destructive legislation but attempts to secure it have by no means been discontinued.

In the face of this situation, the statement continues, the grain dealers' national association see the necessity for further work among the grain growers in a campaign against any change in the present marketing plan.

Members of the committee are James N. Russell, Kansas City, B. F. Benson and John G. McHugh, Minneapolis and J. E. Lowther, Dallas, Texas.

JAPAN WILLING TO DISCUSS FAR EAST QUESTIONS-HUGHES

Secretary of State Makes Announcement Wednesday—Takes Into Consideration Communications and Published Statements of This Government—Reply Made Public

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 27.—Secretary Hughes announced today acceptance by Japan of proposals for a Far Eastern conference in connection with the disarmament discussions suggested by President Harding.

The Japanese acceptance was based on the understanding that the United States was not opposed to an agreement as to the agenda of the Far Eastern conference bfore it convenes.

The Japanese government expressed the opinion in its note that the agenda should be so arranged that the subject discussed be confined to those directly involved in the general subject of disarmament and "that introduction therein of problems such as are of sole concern to certain particular powers or such matters as may be regarded as accomplished facts should be scrupulously avoided."

It was explained that the Japanese government had taken into consideration in reaching its decision the communications and the published statements of the American government of the conversations between the secretary of state and Baron Shidehara indicating that the American Government proposed to discuss the Pacific and the Far Eastern problems because of the close bearing they have on the question of the limitation of armaments. It was on the understanding, therefore that discussion of the Far Eastern problems was made a preliminary to disarmaments negotiations that the Japanese has consented to this consideration.

Makes Reply Public

The state department made public Japan's reply and the memorandum sent by the United States to the Japanese government through the American embassy in Tokio, July 23. It was disclosed that other powers besides China having interests in the Far East might be invited to take part in the conference on far eastern questions. The text of the Japanese reply follows:

"The Japanese government has taken note of the contests of the American memorandum of July 23 received through the American charge d'affaires in reply to the Japanese memorandum of July 13 on the subject of a conference on the limitation of armament to be held in Washington.

"It has been brought to the knowledge of the Japanese government that the government of the United States is willing to proceed with exchanges of opinion regarding the agenda prior to the meeting of the conference and that it considers it advisable to adjust in that agenda the nature and scope of the Pacific and Far Eastern questions to be discussed at the proposed conference. The Japanese government on that understanding, are happy to be able to inform the American government that it is their intention gladly to accept an invitation for a conference which shall embrace the discussion of the Pacific and Far Eastern questions.

Aware of Negotiations

"The Japanese government have been made aware through the communications and published statements of the American government and the conversations between the secretary of state and Baron Shidehara that the proposition of the American government to discuss the Pacific and Far Eastern problems is based on the close bearing they have on the limitation of armaments which is the principal aim of the conference and that of discussing these problems is to reach a common understanding in regard to general principles and policies in the Pacific and the Far East.

Desiring, as they do, to contribute to the establishment of an enduring peace and to the advancement of human welfare the Japanese government earnestly hope that the proosed conference may attain the exected results and their ideals may thereby be brought nearer to realibation.

"In order to insure the success of the conference, the Japanese government deems it advisable that the agenda thereof should be arranged in accordance with the main object of the discussion as above defined and that introductfon therein of problems such as are of sole concern to certain particular powers or such matters that mal be regarded accomplished facts should be scrupulously avoided."

The American memorandum delivered July 23, follows:

"The government of the United States deeply appreciates the

RECEIVER WILL BE ASKED FOR TRUST COMPANY

Michigan Avenue Concern Will be Placed in Receiver's Hands

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, July 27.—A receivership will be asked for the Michigan Avenue Trust company, it was announced today shortly after it became known that the grand jury had returned indictments against Warren C. Spurgin, missing president of the institution. A depositors protective protective committee has been formed and as soon as power of attorney is obtained from depositors action towards having the bank's affairs administered by a receiver will be taken, it is understood.

The chief investigator, Ben Newmark of the state's attorney's office and assistant State's Attorney James E. McShane, attach great importance to information already received from Mrs. Spurgin and her daughter Vivian and that it is felt that the two women have not yet told all they know of the missing banker's whereabouts, which indicated today when it was announced that any attempt to take the wife and daugher from the state's attorney's jurisdiction thru a writ of habeas corpus would be bitterly contested.

Information regarding Spurgin's present whereabouts came from representatives of Lloyds and inkerton Detective agency who are said to have trailed Spurgin from Chicago to Detroit, across the border into Canada and to Montreal, where he is believed to be in hiding. The Monday before the bank crash, Spurgin, it is claimed, is known to have been in Detroit, the next day, the detectives assert, a man answering his description was seen in the Canadian city.

Many cities are in deplorable condition financially. It is reported that in eighty Ohio cities fifty per cent of the 1920 dollar in their revenues is required for sinking fund or debt purposes. One Ohio city is so badly involved that out of every dollar revenue this year only thirteen cents can be used for current business. In one town, Delaware, O., three secret societies have already come to the aid of the municipality, lending it money to see it through the fiscal year, from May until September.

THE RAIN MAKER

A telegram to the Chicago Tribune revives the old "Rain Maker" story, and is given below as a fair exhibit of the product of a prolonged hot spell:

Edward C. Pommerening, president of the Wisconsin Society of Equity, on Tuesday wired F. F. Ratcliffe Lethbridge, Alta., Can., "Make it rain in Wisconsin and we will pay $3,000 an inch."

The society represents 35,000 Wisconsin farmers. Ratcliffe, secretary of the Medicine Hat United Agricultural association induced C. M. Hatfield, rainmaker of California, to go to the Medicine Hat district where the farmers were badly in need of rain. They offered him $2,000 an inch, if it would pour within a specified period. Hatfield made $8,000 when 4.24 inches fell.

Hatfield has made rain for the farmers in three counties in Washington state where he was paid $3,000 an inch. His equipment consists of huge tanks twenty feet high in which Hatfield brews a chemical mixture which opens up the clouds.

PLAY GROUNDS NEEDED

Portland, Oregon, has a city planning commission which has been hard at work for more than two years on problems connected with streets, parkways and boulevards. This commission has planned that certain streets shall be designated as major trafficways and heavy traffic routed over them. Vehicular traffic approaching such main highways will be required to stop before returning into them. Minor residence streets will be made narrower and a saving of 50 percent in paving costs is expected. The commission favors more playgrounds and more parks. The city officials of Portland are working in harmony with the commission and the mayor in a proclamation, has urged that the year 1921 be made one of gifts to the city. The proclamation says: "We need more baseball grounds and larger playgrounds at our schools. Every child and adult too, anywhere in Portland should have full opportunity for healthy recreation. We need large, wild parks and more mountain parks. We must depend upon the generosity of our citizens to save such spots and present them to Portland before the desired tracts are broken up or built upon. * * * I ask civic organizations to name committees to seek gifts for the city in co-operation with the city planning commission. At the end of the year public acknowledgment will be made to the organization bringing in what, in the opinion of the city planning commission and advisory park board, is the most important gift to Portland in 1921. * * * Let us now do these generous and public spirited things for which the city must wait many years unless it has unusual aid from its citizens. Already many deeds conveying private property to the city of Portland have been made.

A number of our citizens who have visited the Patterson-Kline Shows this week are cognizant of the fact that the wheel in operation with this organization was built by the Eli Bridge Company, whose factory is located on Case avenue in this city.

The Eli Company have built a total of 270 big Eli wheels which are in operation not only in all parts of the American continent but in many foreign countries.

However, very few of our citizens realize that Mr. W. K. Davison, owner of this big Eli wheel is also a citizen of Jacksonville, owning a home on East North street, in this city. During the winter months he lives here and is employed in the big Eli factory.

It is interesting to know that Mr. Davison has been a customer of the local company since the year 1907 and this is the second big Eli wheel he has owned. He has just placed his order for a 1922 model big Eli wheel, complete with power and special wagons for transporting, the total of which will approximate $6,800.00. He will place the new big Eli wheel in operation next season in addition to the one he already owns.

According to Mr. Davison's own statements the receipts on the big Eli wheel in Jacksonville so far this week exceed the majority of the same days during other weeks this season, and with good weather the remainder of the week he expects to have a very good total on the big Eli wheel.

If you ride the wheel this week remember that it is a home product owned by a Jacksonville citizen and a portion of the money you spend for riding will be paid to the Eli Bridge Company for the 1922 model wheel.

Ralph Sibley has purchased the cash grocery and meat market of J. E. Osborne located at the corner of South Diamond and Edgmon streets. He will take possession today and will conduct a first class grocery and meat market, giving the best goods at the lowest possible prices.

FROM MISS DEPEW

C. L. Depew has kindly supplied the Journal with two letters from his daughter, Miss Marian, who is at the biological station of the University of Michigan at Topinabee, and having a right royal time. She says it is too bad she can't bottle up some of the cool weather and send it down here where it would be so much appreciated. The scenery about the place is fine. She tells of an all day trip, a combination of birds and bugs, twenty in the party and going twenty miles. They saw fifty different kinds of birds. Each carried a pack and on the way they picked quantities of red raspberries which were much enjoyed.

After the return they had a masquerade party, a theater party and marshmallow roast. She says they have fine fishing there, some caught which weigh twelve to fifteen pounds.

One day she and two others had a canoe trip of a number of miles to Fairy Island, a beautiful spot. There are many birds about the island, she saw over twenty kinds in two hours. Next Week the botany class will go to Cecil Bay starting at 2 a. m., carrying rations and blankets and are expecting a strenuous time. They have large, black cherries which grow on trees on vacant farms. There are Indian camps in their vicinity and occasionally Indian women come to their camps to sell baskets and other articles. Guards are stationed all about to prevent forest fires, though some will break out in spite of them.

"Hearts of the West"

"Hearts of the West" is a story of men, in the full meaning of the word; of desires, of love, of hate, and of the struggles of our early pioneers and gold-seekers, when the law of the land was the six-shooter, when the survival of the fittest meant the quickest on the draw. "Hearts of the West" stands head and shoulders above the average western picture in that it contains not only daredevil stunts and fast action, but it is a story with a real plot, full of romance and gripping scenes.

Professor Einstein

—Maybe so, but any ten year old kid knows a suit of clothes that wears, and looks well while wearing, from one that does not.

—Price is relative. You cannot "see" the wear in a suit. Just because a suit is called "cheap" is no argument in its favor.

—When a suit is "'inexpensive" in actual money, and the best made at the same time, then you have "value."

—There is 100% value in every suit turned out of this shop, and just now they are quite "inexpensive."

—This is understandable "Relativity."

THE ZEDELER SYMPHONIC QUINTET

A Musical Company Which Lives up to a Musical Ideal

Nicolai Zedeler and his company have done more to help people have a genuine love for good music than almost any other musicians upon the Lyceum or Chautauqua platform. It has been the mission of this company to present the more melodious selections from the musical classics in such a way that every listener, even though he may be unversed in music, will understand and appreciate this better music. There is nothing merely technical or uninteresting in their programs to those whose musical education has been neglected. Indeed their work is usually the most popular of any instrumental compapny upon the chautauquas. He is merely able to help each one hear understandingly the great musical classics.

A unique departure has been made by this company in their ensemble numbers in which an especially constructed reed organ is used, making it possible to secure many symphonic effects which would otherwise be impossible in a company of this size. This instrument was especially constructed. Musical critics are constantly amazed at the volume and character of effects secured by the combination of piano, strings, reed and wind which this instrument makes possible.

Mr. Zedeler has been solo 'cellist with the Symphony Orchestra of Stockholm, Sweden and with the Benedix New York Symphony Orchestra. Salvador Sala, violinist, has recently come to America from Spain and is known in Europe as a violin virtuoso of note. Isador Karon, violinist, was a member of the Russian Symphony Orchestra of Odessa. Miss Mildred Louise eAllen, soprano, possesses a brilliant voice of charming personality. Miriam Zedeler, pianist and accompanist, studied at the Chicago Musical College and took coaching under Walter Spry. Her ability is recognized by discerning critics.

This company of brilliant artists which interprets correctly the music of the masters will give four programs at our chautauqua.

The music for the chautauqua includes four more premier musical organizations—The Rainbow Division Band, Dunbar's White Hussars, TheChicago Operatic Company and The Parnells. These organizations will give twenty concerts. A season ticket for this music festival will enable you to enjoy any or all of these concerts.

US CARTRIDGES AND SHELLS

The crack shot uses U S Cartridges

He wants accuracy and sure-fire cartridges, but he knows that a fouled or pitted rifle barrel will throw even the best cartridge off enough to make the difference between winning and losing a match.

All U S Rim Fires, including the famous N. R. A. Long Rifle .22s, which have been used by the winners in so many contests, are made with a new priming that eliminates most of the fouling and wear in the barrel.

For the sake of your rifle use U S Cartridges. They will add thousands of rounds to its life, and incidentally do all that ammunition can do to keep your marksmanship in the expert class.

We sell all popular styles and sizes for all firearms. Money back if not satisfied.

TELLS STORY OF HUSBAND'S DEATH

BANFF, Alberta, July 27.—Details of the first statement made by Mrs. W. E. Stone, concerning the tragic death of her husband, the president of Purdue university who fell to his fate in the solitary fastness of Mount Eanon, on July 15 were brought here by messenger from the rescuing party tonight.

Mrs. Stone, the messenger said, is little the worse for her harrowing experience. It is expected that she will soon have recovered sufficiently to be brought down the Spray river to Fanff. She is suffering chiefly from hunger and exposure, having been eight days and nights with little food on the mountain ledge.

As Mrs. Stone described the tragedy, the guide said, her husband had attempted a short cut up Rock Chimney, a steep peak, faced with rock fragments. She was following but they were not roped together.

When the ascent of the peak was about half completed, the rock on which Dr. Stone was standing, suddenly gave way and he plunged over her head to his death on the cliff below.

Mrs. Stone attempted to reach his side, scaling down the precipitous face of the cliff until she found herself marooned on the narrow ledge from which she was rescued almost dead from exposure. There was a tiny stream trickling from a crack in the ledge and this provided her only means of sustenance.

readiness of the imperial Japanese government to accept the invitation to attend the conference on the limitation of armamen.

"The secretary of state of the United States in the course of formal conversations with his excellency, the imperial ambassador at Washington, has expressed the hope that the imperial government would not press its inquiry as to the nature and scope of the Pacific and far eastern problems to be discussed at the proposed conference in view of the fact that it is desirable that the full acceptance of the invitation of the American government leaves this matter open for adjustment in the precise agenda to be arrived at later.

"The secretary of state is willing to proceed with exchanges of opinion, regarding the agenda prior to the meeting of the conference. He considers it inadvisable, however, at the present moment to hamper the program and in particular to delay the arrangements for the conference pending an agreement regarding this matter."

WIFE MURDERER IS DENIED NEW TRIAL

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, July 27.—Frank Legregni, convicted of the murder of his wife, Geneveive, a school teacher of Bartlett, Ill., was denied a new trial today by Judge John W. Sullivan in the criminal court and sentenced to hang October 21.

While reading a prepared statement to the court in which he asked that he be executed the same day as Carl Wanderer, also convicted of wife murder, Legregni pulled a piece of tin a foot long and sharpened on one edge from his pocket and threatened to attack Assitant State's Attorney Peden, who prosecuted the case. Bailiffs disarmed him also taking from his pocket a heavy brass door knob.

"If you think I haven't a show," the condemned man said, "let me die on Friday so that my friend, Carl Wanderer and myself can go together."

HOUSE NOT "HET UP" OVER TAX BILL

Washington, July 27.—Hopes of administration leaders that the tax revision bill can be put thru the house in time for a recess of congress by mid-August apparently found little reflection today on the house ways and means committee which plugged away at public hearings on the measure with two days more allotted to witnesses.

Chairman Fordney estimated that two weeks would be required for the drafting of the bill after treasury and internal revenue bureau exports have presented their final recommendations at executive sessions planned for two days of next week. Under this program the measure would reach the house about the middle of next month.

The observance of the centennial of Mthodism in Morgan county on Thursday, Augunst 4, promises to be one of the most important events in the history of the community. At that time there will ge a grand assembly of all Methodists of the county. At 10:30 o'clock a parade will form at Grace M. E. church, each Sunday school bearing its own banner and marching as a unit. The parade will be led by two bands, marching to Passavant hospital where the people will gather about the spot first dedicated to Christ 100 years ago and now marked by a large stone tablet. Then there will be a brief address by Dr. E. L. Pletcher, district superintendent.

From the service at Passavant hospital the people will go to Nichols park, where a bountiful dinner will be spread. Music will be furnished by the bands at intervals. After the serving of dinner there will be an appropriate service. Descendents of the old Mr. Jordan in whose cabin the first Methodist service was held will sing "The Little Brown Church in the Wildwood," and Rev. Mr. Simonds of Concord will offer prayer.

SENATOR KESSINGER WHO SPEAKS AT WAVERLY TODAY

DEFENSE TEARS DOWN NETWORK OF TESTIMONY

Bring Immediate Freedom to Two Defendants—Indications Point to Acquital of Buck Meaver and Hap Felsch.

CHICAGO, July 27.—The defense in the baseball trial today in three hours tore down the network of evidence woven by the state in seven days sufficiently to bring immediate freedom to two defendants, obtained a tentative promise from the presiding judge for freedom for three others and presented an alibi supported by two witnesses and numerous written records for a sixth of the eleven men on trial.

As a result of the defense's first attack, Louis and Ben Levi of Kokomo, Ind., walked out of court legally free of any connection with the deal through which it is alleged Chicago White Sox layers agreed to throw the 1919 world series for $100,000. Buck Weaver and Happy Felsch, once idols of the American League and Carl Zork of St. Louis were promised acquittal by Judge Friend unless further evidence is presented against them and David Zelzer of Des Moines, Iowa, presented an alibi through his own testimony which was corroborated by witnesses and documents introduced as evidence. The state rested its case today after Billy Maharg of Philadelphia gave testimony corroborating that previously given by Bill Burns, the admitted accomplice.

Discuss Two Cases

The defense then presented motwions for dismissal of the charges against the Levis, Zork, elzer, Felsch, Weaver and Joe Jackson. The state promptly dropped the cases against the Levis, but refused to take similar action for the others. Zelzer, identified by Maharg and Burns took the stand in his own behalf. He testified that he was in Chicago, September 28, leaving that night for Cincinnati and arriving there September 29, the day Bill Burns had testified he conferred with him in New York over the alleged conspiracy. Returning to Chicago after the two Cincinnati games, Zelzer said he was confined to his hotel room here for three days through illness. His testimony was confirmed by witnesses and hotel records.

The state obtained an admission from Zelzer that he had registered himself, Abe Attell and the two Levis at the Sinton Hotel, Cincinnati, September 30, presenting the register as evidence. Zelzer explained he had been moved to another room that day and had volunteered to take in Attell when the latter could not obtain a room.

He presented a telegram from the Sinton receved today stating he had registered there September 29 and that the register showing this would be sent here if wanted.

"I don't know Maharg or Burns or any of the defendant ball players and never saw Maharg or Burns until they testified here," Zelzer testified.

"I have known Attell for years but did not know anything of this alleged world series deal and Maharg and Burns have made a big mistake in saying I am the man they knew at Bennett."

Testimony Not Strong

The testimony presented against Weaver and Felsch included only the statement of Burns that he saw them in a room in Cincinnati with other players who were said to have been in the alleged conspiracy. This testimony was counteracted by his statement under cross examination that he wasn't sure Weaver and Felsch were there.

Harry Redmon of St Louis who said Zork told him he was "the little red head from St. Louis, who started the deal," was the only man who was testifying against Zook. Judge Friend held that this did not connect Zork sufficiently with the original conspiracy which the state's own witnesses testified was abandoned after the second game, Zork's statement being alleged to have been made after the fourth game and apparently coming up in a conversation about the possibility of further games being thrown.

The only evidence against Louis Levi was that he bet on Cincinnati and Ben Levi was never mentioned in the conspiracy.

Weaver and Felsch Happy

Buck Weaver and Happy Felsch were the happiest persons in the court building when informed of Judge Friend's statements concerning them. Tonight both men were receiving scores of congratulatory telegrams and telephone messages from friends.

Weaver said he wanted to get back into major league baseball, but Felsch wasn't so sure about wishing to play again.

"If Judge Friend takes that attitude there can't be any doubt in any one's mind about my innocence,' said Weaver. "I'm sure that no one will try to keep me out of baseball after that. I don't want to play with the White Sox any more, for I don't want to work for Mr. Comiskey. I'd like to be traded—preferably to New York or Celeveland and play the outfield, my original position."

"If you play the outfield, then I'll play the infield," broke in Felsch.

DR. S. PARKES CADMAN
America's reatest Preacher, at the Chautauqua

The Chautauqua was fortunate indeed in securing Dr. Cadman for a lecture. Dr. Cadman was known as one of England's greatest pulpit orators when he was persuaded to accept a pulpit in New York. His present church and parish in Brooklyn are the centers of a ministry recognized at home and abroad as unsurpassed for intellectual range and spiritual insight.

Dr. Cadman's lectures are not merely light chaff, but are the meat best suited for those who know how to think. It is safe to say that Dr. Cadman's lecture will mean more to the mental life of those who appreciate great things on the platform than any speaker who has spoken from our platform.

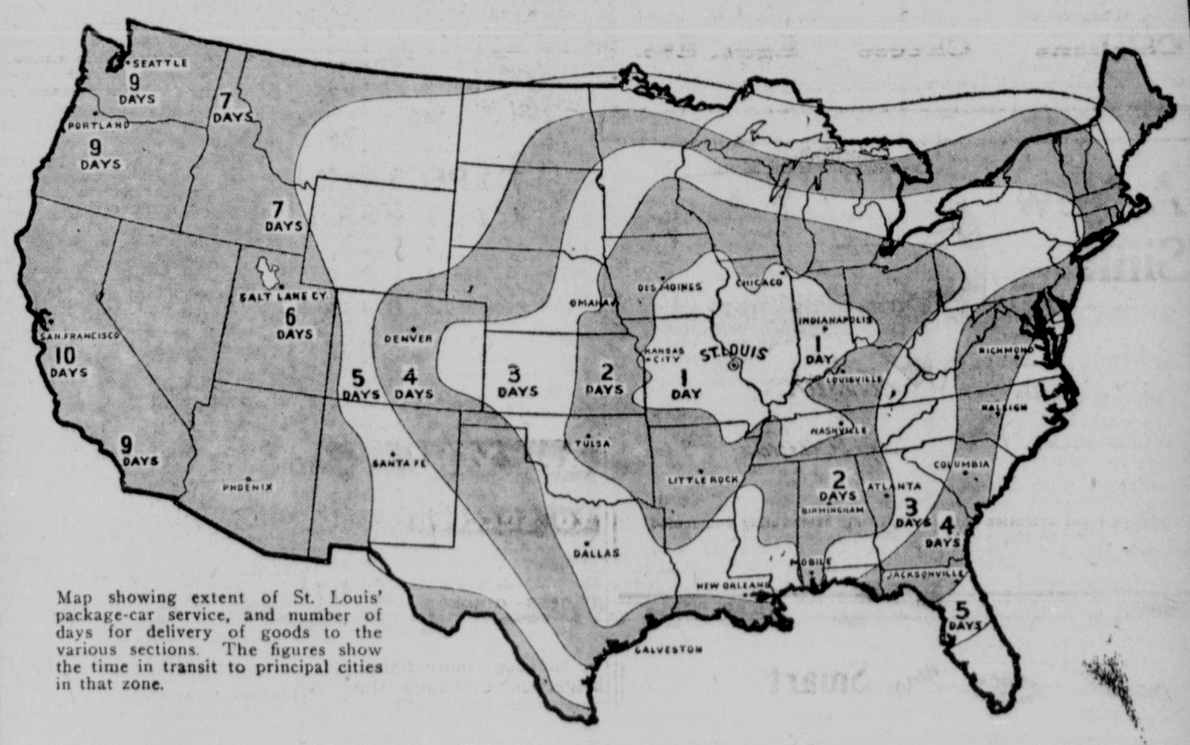
GOODS LAID DOWN
From St. Louis Cost Less



Map showing extent of St. Louis' package-car service, and number of days for delivery of goods to the various sections. The figures show the time in transit to principal cities in that zone.

A Word to Merchants—

From Market to You by Freight—Almost Like Express

Money saved in trips to market and in freight rates means better prices to your customers. Reasonably priced merchandise this Fall is going to be the key to greater sales. St. Louis is your nearest big market. Nearness to you makes the freight haul shorter than from any other principal market. The tremendous open stocks, and the compactness of the St. Louis wholesale district, makes selection easy from wide varieties and saves time and hotel bills for you.

Two other important elements enter into your Fall buying: (1) seasonable goods of correct styles—St. Louis aids buyers in securing seasonable and timely merchandise by depicting the latest modes in its annual Fashion Show; (2) the time it takes the merchandise to reach you after you buy. For stock replenishing this is especially a vital factor.

St. Louis simplifies these problems for you, as it does most of your buying troubles. The time element is solved when more than 1,200 package cars leave St. Louis every night by through freight, by which mixed shipments reach you on almost the same basis as express.

St. Louis originated this time-saving convenience for the buyer, and today has the best package-car delivery in the United States. Look at the above map and see how close in miles and days of shipping you are to this big market.

The growth of St. Louis has been based upon a continually expanding demand for dependable merchandise in your territory. St. Louis business houses have for more than a century specialized in the particular demands of your section of the country, and therefore are better qualified to meet your needs and requirements.

Come to market early. Come to St. Louis—The Solid City of the Central West

August 2, 3, 9, 10, 11, 16, 17.

TO OUT-OF-TOWN MERCHANTS:
We want you to get the best possible service out of St. Louis. Do you have occasional trouble in getting shipments or any trouble with securing the right rate? If so, let us help you. Address General Secretary, St. Louis Chamber of Commerce.

NEW RECORDS ARE MADE AT COLUMBUS

Millie Irwin Trots Fastest Heat of the Year—Jim B Also Paces Mile in 2:02½ Fastest Mile By Gelding.

Columbus, O., July 27.—Elements and horses combined today to highly entertain Grand Circuit spectators and new season's records were registered and some startling surprises in heat results were noted.

Millie Irwin in defeating Periscope in the first heat of the 2:05 class trotting, the Neil House stake, trotted in 2:03¼ the fastest est trotting mile of year. Jim B., favorite in the 2:11 Deshler Hotel pace, also stepped in 2:02½ the fastest mile paced this year by a gelding. He won the race with something to spare from a field that had real speed limit.

The 2:13 class trot and the 2:05 trotting stake were split heat affairs. Hilda Fletcher finally won the 2:13 event and Periscope the latter.

Harvest Brook won the three year old pacing stak'e, 'the favorite purse," $2,500 from Ruth Volo, the only other starter.

Unfinished events left over from Tuesday saw one surprise when Johnny Quirk won the third heat of the 2:05 Elks pacing stake from Roy Gratton who already had clinched the race yesterday.

ANNOUNCE CHANGE IN PLAYING DATES

New York, July 27.—A change in the dates of the Davis Cup semi-final round at Chicago between Japan and India and the challenge round at Newport, R. I., was announced tonight by the United States lawn tennis association following receipt of word that the Indian team had been delayed in sailing from England.

The Chicago round originally scheduled for August 11, 12, 13, has been postponed to August 18, 19, 20. The challenge round has been advanced a week to August 25 26, 27, which conflicts with the latter half of the national doubles championship at Boston.

Because of the fire on Steamship Manetania on which the Indian players had booked passage they were compelled to make other arrangements and have obtained accommodations on the Olympic due to arrive about August 10.

Daily Market Report

WHEAT PRICES CLOSED NERVOUS

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, July 27.—Indications that the harvest movement from the soft wheat states was about over had a bullish effect on the wheat market today. Prices closed nervous 2 to 2⅝c net higher with September $1.27 to $1.27¼ and Dec. $1.28⅝ to $1.29. Corn gained ¼ to 1c and oats finished ⅛c off to ⅛c up. In provisions the outcome was unchanged to 15@17c higher. Evidence that country selling of wheat was abruptly falling off caused the opinion to gain ground that the maximum of receipts had been passed so far as the winter crop was concerned and that a majority of farmers were binning the rest of their winter wheat to hold for higher prices.

Belief that current export business was much in excess of the published totals counted also as a strenthening factor. Besides gossip was circulated that domestic milling consumption promised to be a good deal larger than during last year. Another strengthening influence was the government weekly crop report which commented on unsatisfactory yields in the eastern portion of the spring wheat belt and in many sections of the winter wheat region as well.

About the only bearish news at hand was a favorable summary of the European crop outlook as to wheat.

Need of rain in Iowa, Indiana, and other important states gave an upward slant to the corn market.

Oats were relatively weak owing to heavy sales attributed to an eastern exporter.

Firmness in the provision makket was due in the main to the fact that hogs had risen to the highest quotations this season yet.

MANY SPECIALTIES SHOW LOSSES

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, July 27.—Weakness of various speculative specialties and a steady to firm tone for standard shares based largely on relaxed monetary conditions were the sharply contrasting features of today's stock market.

United Drug overshadowed all other issues, however, opening at an additional decline of 5¼ points, extending this loss to 20¼ at mid-day and finishing at a net reversal of 17¼ points. There was considerable mystery connected with the collapse of this stock under the last half of the session when it became known that Louis K. Liggett, president of the company had placed his affairs in the hands of trustees.

Call money opened at five per cent an unusually low initial rate and eased at 4½, the minimum quotation since November, 1919, in the final hour. In the open market call funds were offered as low as four per cent on prime collateral.

Italian and Dutch rates at reactions of 20 to 30 points featured the very erratic foreign exchange market. French and other continetal bills were slightly lower but sterling was relatively steady.

Liberty and international bonds were irregular Total sales (par value) $10,250,000.

LETTER FROM THE WEST

Mrs. Andrew Finlay just received a letter from her grandfather, John Minter, who is in Colorado looking after his business interests there. Mr. Minter reports business conditions as not very satisfactory. Money is scarce and prices for farmers' products low. Wheat selling at ninety cents a bushel barely pays for producing and delivering, which leaves nothing for living expenses and taxes. The prospects for corn, alfalfa and mace, however, are very good. In Baco and Lasanias counties oil wells are being promoted and there is very good prospect of their being a success.

Mr. Minter expects to be in Colorado about three months, during which time we will probably hear from him furehtr regarding his observations.

THE BIG SPECIAL

The rest of the consignment is made up of longhorned steers, wild horses, cow ponies and special riding horses.

ANSWERS QUESTIONS ABOUT THE ROUND-UP

Secretary Welch Tells Something About the Show and the Prices of Admission.

Many questions have been asked from time to time regarding the Round-Up so in this article an attempt will be made to answer a few of them.

The champions of all the Round-Ups that have been held in recent years in Cheyenne, Wyoming; Pendleton, Oregon; Chicago, Illinois and other western cities have combined under the leadership of Leonard Stroud and they with their outfits have been secured by the Chamber of Commerce to stage the Round-Up for Jacksonville. All these performers were prize winners in the recent Round-Up held in Chicago and are the cream of the show.

The reason that no night performance is given is owing to the fact that no proper lighting facilities have so far been devised that will light the arena sufficient to allow the performers to do the hazardous "stunts' in the safety that the day light permits

The prices of admission are as follows:

Adults: General admission 85 cents.

Children: General admission 55 cents.

Reserved seats under canvas canopy 55 cents.

These prices include war tax. Plenty of general admission seats have been provided and sufficient reserve seats will be provided.

All who attend will be assured of a first class performance and those who fail to attend will certainly regret their action after the three big days are gone.

A pleasant day of entertainment awaits the Jacksonville party and everyone is welcome to join the party whether they are members of he Chamber of Commerce or not. So if it at all possible join the crowd and make a day of it.

LOVAL FACTORY GIVES CUSTOMERS SERVICE

Mr. Robert Hughey Brings Portion of Big Eli Wheel from Chicago by Truck for Repairs.

At 1:00 p. m. Monday afternoon the Eli Bridge Company received a long distance call from Mr. Robert Hughey, a big Eli wheel owner of Chicago, Illinois advising that in the erection of his No. 12 big Eli wheel a rope had broken and twisted the top towers and one base section. He advised that he was leaving by truck for Jacksonville bringing the parts for repair and wanted quick service in order to take the parts back to the city as soon as the work could be completed.

Mr. Hughey with two truck drivers and the portion of his big Eli wheel needing repairs left Chicago at 5:40 p. m. Monday afternoon and after a fast trip arrived in Jacksonville at 7:10 p. m. Tuesday evening encountering splendid roads the greater part of the way from Chicago to Jacksonville. He advises they made from 20 to 25 miles per hour on many stretches of roads between Chicago and Jacksonville.

Three big Eli men worked until 11:45 p. m. Tuesday night and a crew of men at the factory finished the repairs at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday afternoon when Mr. Hughey and his two drivers left again for Chicago expecting to arrive in time Thursday to erect the big Eli wheel for operation Thursday night.

This trip is unusual but Mr. Hughey advised that he feared delay if the shipment was given to the Express Company because going in and out of the city many times these shipments are lost for several hours. It only precedes a great many truck trips where service and quick time means money as it does with Mr. Hughey at this time of year when the big Eli wheel should be in operation every day.

The local manufacturers of big Eli wheels have made prompt service to their customers, a feature of their business, having given Mr. Hughey the same prompt service which means so much to all big Eli wheel owners at this season of the year.

Lutheran Church picnic, Maple Grove school, South Jacksonville, Thursday, July 28. Burgoo soup, chicken dinner and supper. Refreshments. Aprons. Music by Pond family orchestra. Come.
